

Diabetes Week HCP Webinar

The 14th of June marks the start of diabetes week and as a proud provider of multiple diabetes intervention services we want to invite you to a free webinar. It will be an opportunity for you to meet the team, learn more about the services we run and gain an insight into our recent improvements and service outcomes.

There are multiple dates and times available so please complete the below form by the 11th of June to sign up to the session that best suits your availability.
