

Neurology in Suffolk

Helpful contacts at diagnosis

If you have been diagnosed with a neurological condition, you can get confidential help and advice from charities as well as from medical services. The charities listed below offer helplines staffed by trained advisers who can offer help with medical issues, employment and benefits, health and social care services, and emotional support. They can also tell you about local services.

Parkinson's UK

Helpline: 0808 800 0303 www.parkinsons.org.uk

Huntington's Disease Association

Helpline: 0151 331 5444 www.hda.org.uk

Multiple Sclerosis Society

Helpline: 0808 800 8000 www.mssociety.org.uk

Motor Neurone Disease Association

Helpline: 0808 802 6262 www.mndassociation.org.uk

Sue Ryder Neurological care and support

Tel. 01473 295200 www.sueryder.org/thechantry
Suffolk Dementia Helpline: 08081 688 000

Headway Suffolk Services for all neurology conditions

Helpline: 01473 712225 www.headwaysuffolk.org.uk

PSP Association

Helpline: 0300 0110 122 www.pspassociation.org.uk

Epilepsy Society

Helpline: 01494 601400 www.epilepsysociety.org.uk

Stroke Association

Helpline: 0303 3033 100 www.stroke.org.uk

Icanho Service for Stroke/Traumatic Brain Injury

Tel: 01449 774161
www.livability.org.uk/service/icanho-brain-injury-rehabilitation

Healthwatch Suffolk

Helpline: 0800 4488 234 www.healthwatchesuffolk.co.uk
Signpost for other conditions, feedback on services

To order more copies of this pad contact: kharris@parkinsons.org.uk

Funded by a grant from Biogen. Biogen have had no involvement with the content.